Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Knowledge and Practice I Wish to begin by congratulating the chapter of Phi Beta Kappa that has its home at Brown University on its long and honorable traditions, and especially on the eminent services that its members, through successive generations, have rendered to science, to education, and to public life. When I recall even a few names from that long roll of illustrious living and noble dead who owe their nurture and inspiration to this University and to this Society, I can appreciate the feelings with which you are assembled for your annual celebration, and am deeply sensible of the honor of being invited to address you on this occasion. The motto of the Phi Beta Kappa society, Philosophy the pilot of life, furnishes the text for the reflections that I have to lay before you to-day. This motto suggests the famous saying of Socrates in the Apology, that a life without criticism or examination is not a life worth living for a human being. It is this faculty of reflecting on experience, and finding...
