Dayton Publishing LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. E. Felix Lyon (illustrator). Paperback. 78 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. Max and the Lowrider Car, is the first in the Hounds Glenn series. In the town of Hounds Glenn, the inhabitants are dogs and wolves. The kids can be kids, the teenagers are well, you know and the grownups act grown up. Its a good place. Youll like it. Max lives there. Max has an especially creative mind for a wolf cub in the fifth grade. Even so, when his teacher gives him an assignment to find something AMAZING to write about in their small town, Max is pretty sure thats impossible. Then he discovers Mr. L. Lobos auto body shop and his AMAZING customized car, Numero Uno, and life changes for Max, his friends, his big brother, and nearly everyone else in the town. The quest for more cars to customize leads a small mixed band of adventurers (wolves and hounds, pups and grownups) on a road trip complete with campfire monster stories, motorcycle-riding wild boars, and an invasion by a townful of very perturbed birds. But dont worry in the end Max dreams up a way to fix everything. Author Tonton Jim has created a story to be enjoyed by kids and grownups alike, especially reading together. The humor ranges from tongue-in-cheek wordplay to fairly hilarious silliness. Charming and colorful pencil-and-watercolor illustrations by E. Felix Lyon help bring Jims memorable characters to life, and Ron Mullers lowrider pinstriping sketches add authenticity. Whether or not lowriders are your thing, this heartwarming seven-chapter book will bring you a smile, keep you turning the pages, and leave you looking forward to more Hounds Glenn adventures in the future. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN....
