By Joel D. Hesch

Liberty University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 212 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Reward: Collect Millions for Reporting Tax Evasion Are you aware. . . 350 billion in taxes go unpaid each year. The IRS pays 15-30 to report tax evasion. Multi-million dollar rewards are waiting. The new IRS Whistleblower Reward Program pays you up to 30 of the unpaid taxes it collects. That means if a company or individual you know about underpaid their taxes, you could receive huge rewards for reporting them. If you have the right kind of a case, you will receive millions of dollars. Chances are you or someone you know is eligible! But the process is far more than calling a hotline or simply filling out a form. You must scrupulously follow each technical requirement and informal procedure. That's where this book fits in. It is the first complete guide to the IRS Reward Program. From numerous stories and examples to checklists and evaluation techniques, Reward helps you understand the benefits and avoid pitfalls. JOEL HESCH spent 15 years as an attorney with the Fraud Division of the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C. administering the nationwide whistleblower reward program-on...
