The people of Cho mourned the loss of this upright minister, and when the day of his death come round, prepared boats and went up and down the river, searching for him. It was anciently the custom to fill bamboo reeds with rice, and cast it into the river, as an offering to his spirit. The dragon boat at present used on the Canton river, is about eighty feet long, and five or six feet wide, manned by a hundred or more of men with paddles. They are not troubled with too many clothes, but each wears a red sash. They have a man in the bows with a red flag, and several drums and gongs, the beatin of which times the rowers, who with the red flag, move with...
