Excerpt: . . . 11 Many thousands of young people congregate in the area search-ing for a high. In the last couple of years, a half dozen party-goers have been killed here by hit-and-run, gun or knife. Our State law requires that a person be 21 years of age to buy alcohol. How-ever, on otherwise slow days, some of the clubs advertise 18 year-old or college nights, where ostensibly their profit is from entrance fees. Business leaders, neighborhood activists, the ministry, civic groups and some elected officials have campaigned for years to tame this phenomenon. The trend, however, has been an accelera-tion of the excesses. Although local police have recently been more aggressive reducing the crowd size, there is a serious possibility that the resulting reduction in alcohol sales may be replaced with alternative business practices. Sadly, it should be noted that local government has even less power to control...
