Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Improvement Era, Vol. 26 Probably the most interesting and instructive subject for religious investigation is the fulfilment of prophecy either ancient or modern. He that prophesieth, speaketh unto men for edification and exhortation and comfort. This holds true in our day as well as in the days of the Apostle Paul. The prophecy on war given through Joseph Smith, contained in the 87th Section of the Doctrine and Covenants, is of especial interest at this time, since with the close of the late World War we have closed another important chapter in the fulfilment of this prophecy. If the reader is not familiar with or wishes to refresh his mind on this prophecy he can find it as stated above. Space will allow only a resume of the important or outstanding points contained in it. These after giving date are: 1. The prophecy is given in the name of the Lord, Verily thus saith the Lord. 2. It predicts a series of wars: 3. The first, or the Civil War: (a) The first war as well as the series of wars should begin with the rebellion of South Carolina. (b) Tho Southern States should be divided against the Northern Slates. (c) The Southern States should call on other nations, including Great Britain. 4. The second war or the World s War. (a) The nations called upon by the Southern States would either individually or collectively call upon other nations. (b) This call would be for defense against other nations (nations other than those called upon by the South). (c) At this time war should be poured out upon all nations. 5. The Third War...
