Most people who have children need daycare be it that they are school age, preschool or infant.Everyday parents are looking for good and affordable daycare. This book is full of situations coworkers and I have witnessed or had it happen to us. As preschool teachers, we change diapers, comfort the children and direct them just to name a few. My hope is parents educate themselves before trusting their little one to any daycare by doing your homework, asking other parents going online.Anyone working with children must be finger printed go through a background check.
